

Greg Fitzgerald has been named Moran & Goebel's February
Caregiver of the Month

Greg has been working at Catholic Charities since 1997 and enjoys being a part of something different every day. He works as the Senior Services Supervisor working directly with programs that assist the elderly. Greg enjoys his job because he wants to be part of the lives of those that he serves. He listens to each of their different stories which makes his life rewarding.

The Caregiver of the Month program honors Greg Fitzgerald and the many others like him for the amazing work they do every day. Visit our website to read about Greg and other inspiring Caregivers.
